

CIRCULAR.

Frontier Guardian, from the beginning of Vol. III, reduced to ONE DOLLAR a year, ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. No subscription received for a less term than one year, and no paper continued after the term expires for which Payment has been made, unless renewed by a remittance. All Letters, POST-PAID, will receive attention.

Mr. George Jacobson, Esq., Mathews & Co., May 1851

SIR: The balance due this office from you at the expiration of Volume II., was $ 1 1/2 cents. This balance we need, to aid us in prosecuting the business committed to our charge, and hope it may suit your early convenience to remit the same to us.

Should your account embrace fractional parts of a dollar, you can make it even money, so as to render it mailable. To this you can add an extra dollar, which will secure you the Guardian one year longer, and we will forward you the paper at the rate of one dollar a year 'till this money is exhausted. The great reduction in the price of our labor in this Frontier Country, makes it absolutely necessary for us to collect arrearages as far as possible, and to require payment in advance for future services.

I have the honor to be, most respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

ORSON HYDE.

KANSASVILLE, February, 12th, 1851.
